ARTICLE 1 – GENERAL PURPOSE

1.01 The purpose of this Agreement is to maintain a harmonious relationship between the Canadian Union of Public Employees and its employees, to define clearly hours of work, rates of pay and conditions of employment, to provide for an amicable method of settling differences which may from time to time arise, to promote the mutual interest of the Employer and its employees, to promote and maintain such conditions of employment, which will set a pattern for employers of affiliates to the Employer.

The Union recognizes that it is the function of the Employer to exercise the regular and customary function of Management and to direct the working forces of the Employer, subject to the terms of this Agreement. The Employer retains the right to determine the existence of vacant positions and the classification of vacant positions which are to be filled; to transfer staff; and to re-allocate work assignments. When making such changes, however, due consideration shall be given to the seniority of employees affected. It is understood that employees thus affected will be notified in advance of such changes. In administering this Agreement, the Employer shall act reasonably fairly, in good faith, and in a manner consistent with the Agreement as a whole.

ARTICLE 2 – UNION RECOGNITION

2.01 Definition of the Bargaining Unit

- (a) This Agreement shall apply to all full-time and part-time employees of the Employer doing office and clerical work, hired for a period of fifteen (15) hours a week or more, whose duties fall within the classifications listed in Schedule "A", save and except the National Officers, the Managing Director of Human Resources, the Director of Labour Relations, Senior Labour Relations Officer, and those employees covered by the Collective Agreements between the Employer and the Canadian Staff Union National Office Component; the Canadian Staff Union; Canadian Staff Union Local 1-BC; Canadian Staff Union Local 1-NL; employees in the Quebec Region; SEIU Local 2; the Confidential Employees Union and the Canadian Directors Union.

Temporary employees kept beyond two (2) months of continuous service shall be considered to have completed their probationary period in case of permanent status, provided they have satisfactorily worked in the position for which they are hired, for a minimum of two (2) months. The Union shall be notified in writing within ten (10) working days of the hiring of a temporary employee if the duration of employment is expected to go beyond three (3) months, and any subsequent change in the position.

- (f) Any temporary employee hired prior to November 1st in any year will not be laid off during the Christmas/New Year's shutdown unless notified in writing, at the time of hiring, that their assignment would terminate prior to or on December 17th.

New Year's Day

- (g) (i) The Employer shall forward a seniority list for bidding purposes only, for temporary employees on active payroll on the date of issue, to the Union, in an electronic version in June and December of each year. The list shall identify the total number of calendar days of temporary service accumulated in the previous twenty-four (24) months or the total continuous service if greater than twenty-four (24) months.
- (ii) In the event there is a break in service of 30 calendar days or less, such time shall be considered as continuous service.

- (h) Notwithstanding Article 2.02 (b) (i) employees hired for six (6) months or less will receive eight percent (8%) pay in lieu of vacation.

ARTICLE 2 – UNION RECOGNITION (cont'd)

2.03 Part-Time Employees

A part-time employee is one who is hired to work on a continuing basis less than the work week provided for in this Agreement. Part-time employees shall be included in all terms of this Agreement on a pro rata basis. 2.05 Work of the Bargaining Unit

Persons who are not in the bargaining unit shall not perform work that should normally be performed by members of the bargaining unit, who are available and qualified to do the work.

2.06 Retention of Rights and Privileges

Should the Employer merge, amalgamate or combine any of its departmental operations or functions with another organization, the Employer, through whatever merger Agreement might be involved, agrees that all benefits and conditions of employment held by all employees and CSU, CSU National Office Component, CEU and COPE Local 491 retirees shall be integrated and shall not be adversely affected.

2.07 Resolutions and Reports of National Executive Board

Copies of all changes in policies or rules and regulations adopted by the National Executive Board, which affect the members of the Union, are to be forwarded to the Union.

ARTICLE 2 – UNION RECOGNITION (cont'd)

- 2.08 Notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement, in cases where an established local, regional, provincial or national union ("the predecessor union") merges, affiliates, amalgamates or joins with CUPE, and where such union has its own employees:
- (a) CUPE may hire such employees without having to go through the job posting procedure (Article 8.09), provided that the jobs they are hired for with CUPE are the same jobs they have been performing with the predecessor union (i.e. their own jobs);
 - (b) Service/seniority of employees of the predecessor union hired by CUPE, whether under (a) above or otherwise, shall be considered as service/seniority with CUPE.

ARTICLE 3 – LABOUR-MANAGEMENT RELATIONS

3.01 Negotiating Committee

The Employer will recognize a Negotiating Committee appointed by the Union. No deductions shall be made from the salaries of six (6) employees identified by the Union, for time spent in negotiations. In the event one of the Committee members is unilingual French, the Union will consult in advance with the Employer to propose translation arrangements. If the parties reach a consensus on translation arrangements, the Employer will cost-share the expense with the Union.

3.02 Labour-Management Committee

The Labour-Management Committee shall be established and shall enjoy the full support of both parties to this Agreement in the interests of maximum service to the employees and the Employer. The Committee will meet within six (6) weeks of a request from either party. Each party shall notify the other of their representatives on the Labour-Management Committee.

The parties agree to schedule a minimum of two (2) Labour Management Committee meetings per year, one of which will be before June 30th, and one after June 30th and before December 31st.

3.03 Technical Information

The Employer shall make available to the Union on request, information required by the Union, such as positions in the bargaining unit, job classifications, wage rates, pension and welfare plans.

3.04 Leave Without Loss of Pay for Union Activities

- (a) Employees acting as representatives of the Union shall not suffer any loss of pay or benefits in the following instances:
 - (i) Up to one hundred (100) days over the life of the agreement for attendance at conventions and conferences; representation on provincial boards, federations, labour councils or committees; and presidential responsibilities (which may be taken in one-hour increments with a tally provided to the Employer monthly). (Unit as a whole.)

ARTICLE 3 – LABOUR-MANAGEMENT RELATIONS

- (ii) In the case of arbitration, the grievor and a designated representative from the Union.
 - (iii) Up to forty-two (42) days per year over the life of the agreement for the purpose of attending union executive meetings. (Unit as a whole; maximum of three (3) days per person for a maximum of thirteen (13) persons.)
- (b) Representatives of the Union required to leave their employment temporarily in order to carry out Union business with the Employer shall suffer no loss of pay for the time so spent.

3.05 Correspondence

- (a) All correspondence between the parties, arising out of this Agreement or incidental thereto, shall pass to and from the National Officers or their designates and the President of the Union with copies to be forwarded to the Table Officers of COPE 491.
- (b) The Employer will forward to the President, with copies to the Table Officers of COPE 491, the name and address of all newly hired employees at the time of commencement of employment with the Employer. The Employer further agrees to inform the Union in form of a letter of the name of any employee leaving the employ and informing of the reason for the severance of employment when same occurs. The foregoing information shall be provided electronically.
- (c) Any correspondence between CUPE and any member of the bargaining unit arising out of this Agreement or incidental thereto shall be copied to the Table Officers of COPE 491. This correspondence may be electronic where applicable.

ARTICLE 4 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 4.01(a) It is agreed and understood that both parties recognize that the final resolve of the grievance should be undertaken without any undue delay. It is in the best interest of CUPE and COPE Local 491 to bring about a better understanding of both parties' position on matters arising from the Collective Agreement.

Grievance(s) must be filed in accordance with the following procedures within twenty-five (25) working days, or when the employee becomes aware of the occurrence. Otherwise they will not be accepted for processing.

- (b) Replies to grievances shall be in writing at all stages. The grievor shall be copied on all replies.

4.02 Step 1:

The grievance shall be forwarded to the appropriate Regional Director, National Branch Director or their designate with a copy to the Director of Labour Relations and National Officers, and discussions shall take place between the parties. A written reply to the grievance shall be forwarded to the Union within fifteen (15) working days of having received the grievance.

Step 2:

If this does not resolve the grievance, a meeting/or conference call shall take place between the appropriate Managing Director and/or the Director of Labour Relations, and duly authorized representatives of the Union within twenty (20) working days to attempt to settle the grievance. A written decision shall be communicated to the Union and the grievor within fifteen (15) working days of the meeting. Failing settlement, the grievance shall then become the subject of arbitration. (Provided that by mutual written consent of the parties, said meeting may be waived and the matter remitted directly to arbitration. The parties may, by mutual agreement, refer the grievance to the next Labour-Management Committee meeting on a without prejudice basis to attempt to resolve the matter.)

- 4.03 The Grievance Committee shall have the option of bringing the grievor to the grievance meeting. Travel and related costs are to be borne by COPE Local 491.

- 4.04 The Union may file a grievance on behalf of one, a group, or all members within the same period.

ARTICLE 4 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE (cont'd)

4.05 The grievance shall be referred to arbitration within forty (40) working days after the time limits set out in Step 2 of 4.02 above. The grievance shall be submitted to an Arbitration Board consisting of three (3) members or a single arbitrator. First, one (1) shall be designated by each party. Then, the two (2) designated members shall mutually agree to the appointment of a chairperson.

The arbitration hearing shall be held in the province where the grievance originated.

The grievor has the right to an arbitration hearing in the official language of his or her preference. The cost of interpreter or simultaneous translation services if required, will be borne equally between the Employer and the Union.

4.06 Where an Arbitrator/Arbitration Board finds that the Employer has violated the Agreement and such violation has resulted in loss of earnings for the employee or employees concerned, such Arbitrator/Arbitration Board shall have the right to direct compensation of such employee or employees to the extent that is fair and equitable.

4.07 The Arbitrator/Arbitration Board shall not have the jurisdiction to alter or change any of the provisions of this Agreement.

4.08 No grievance shall be defeated by any formal or technical objection.

4.09 Supplementary Agreements

Supplementary agreements, if any, upon ratification by both parties to this Agreement shall form part of this Agreement and are subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure.

4.10 Whenever time limitations are provided in this Article, such limitations may be extended by the agreement of the parties or the arbitrator.

ARTICLE 5 – UNION SECURITY

5.01 For the duration of this Agreement, all employees of the Employer shall be required to be and remain members of the Union in good standing, as a term and condition of continued employment. All new employees who shall be hired after the execution of this Agreement shall, immediately upon their hiring, make application for membership in the Union, shall join the Union and shall thereafter be required to remain members of the Union in good standing as a term and condition of continued employment. Union dues shall be deducted commencing the first pay period.

5.02 New Employees

(a) Potential Employees

During the interview process, the employer will advise potential employees that a union collective agreement is in effect and will inform them of the conditions of employment set out in the articles dealing with Union Security and Dues.

(b) New Employees

On commencing employment in a position within the bargaining unit, the employee's immediate supervisor or other representative of the employer will provide the new employee with the name and contact information of their COPE 491 Regional Vice President (RVP) or Representative, as designated by the Union.

The representative designated by the Union Regional Vice President will be given an opportunity to meet privately in person or via conference call with each new employee during the first month of employment to acquaint them with the structure, benefits, and duties of union membership. A maximum of sixty (60) minutes will be allowed for this purpose within regular working hours and without loss of pay for either employee. It is understood that no additional lost time or any travel costs will be borne by CUPE.

(c) Notification of New Hires

The Union shall be notified in writing within ten (10) working days of the hiring of any new employee, temporary or permanent, with copies of the correspondence to the Union.

(d) Regular Staff Meetings

The Union will be provided an opportunity to make union announcements at the conclusion of any meeting convened by the Employer provided that the Union's representative is already in approved attendance at the meeting.

ARTICLE 5 – UNION SECURITY (cont'd)

5.03 Copies of Agreement

On commencing employment, the Union Officer or designate shall provide all new employees with a copy of the Collective Agreement.

5.04 Union Bulletin Boards

The Employer shall provide bulletin boards for the exclusive use of the Union in all offices where two (2) or more employees are working. The Employer shall not interfere with the material posted by or on behalf of the Union on such bulletin boards.

5.05 Copies of the collective agreement shall be provided to members within ninety (90) days of ratification of the collective agreement.

ARTICLE 6 – CHECK-OFF

6.01 Upon receipt of authorization as required by law, the Employer agrees to deduct the amount authorized as union fees, dues and assessments, from each pay, and transmit the monies as collected to the Treasurer of the Union within seven (7) days of each pay period, together with a list of employees for whom deductions were made.

6.02 Dues Supporting Documentation

Along with the deductions, the Employer will provide an electronic spreadsheet to the Union indicating the pay period covered by the deduction and the following information for all employees from whose wages the deductions have been made: employee number, employee name, province of employment, last hire date, job status description, position description, regular salary/maternity/vacation bonus, overtime, vacation payouts, and Union dues.

ARTICLE 7 – SENIORITY

7.01 Seniority is defined as the length of service with the Employer in the COPE bargaining unit. Seniority shall be a major factor in determining preference and priority for promotions, transfers, layoffs, recall and demotion.

7.02 Probationary Period

All new employees will be considered on a probationary period for the first sixty (60) days actually worked in their employment. If retained after the probationary period, an employee becomes a member of the regular working staff with full seniority status, dating from the first day of employment. However, in the case of an employee hired subsequent to a vacancy created by the transfer of an employee outside of the bargaining unit, such transferred employee may exercise their right to return to the bargaining unit as specified in Article 7.08. The former employee may be terminated regardless of the fact that they may have completed their sixty (60) days probationary period.

7.03 Seniority List

The Employer shall maintain a seniority list showing the date upon which each employee's service commenced with the Employer. An up-to-date seniority list shall be sent to all employees for their information April 30th of each year in an electronic form.

7.04 Notice of Lay-Off

The Employer will notify the Union and the employee at least forty-five (45) days in advance of any impending lay-off, and/or abolition of a position, except where employees are hired to work on special campaigns or assignments of limited duration. If the employee laid off has not had the opportunity to work forty-five (45) days after notice of lay-off, they shall be paid in lieu of work for that part of the forty-five (45) day period during which work was not available.

ARTICLE 7 – SENIORITY (cont'd)

- 7.05 Should the working staff be reduced, or should a job be abolished, lay-offs will be made on the basis of seniority and with regard to special qualifications, those with the least seniority being laid off first.

Both parties recognize that job security should increase in proportion to the length of service. If there is to be a reduction in the number of employees within the bargaining unit, the Employer will give the Union as much advance notice as possible and discussion will begin to determine what should be done with those employees whose positions become redundant. Employees shall be laid off in reverse order of seniority and shall be recalled in the order of their seniority provided they are qualified to perform the work. No new employees will be hired until those laid off have been given an opportunity of employment.

Employees affected may use their seniority to displace a less senior permanent employee in their permanent position in the bargaining unit in an equivalent or lower classification, providing they can perform the normal requirements of the position. Displaced employees will, in turn, have the same right to use their seniority for the same purpose.

It is understood however in regard to the bumping rights referred to above, an employee in order to qualify for moving expenses must be obliged to bump outside of their locality. It is further understood, that moving expenses will only be paid to a maximum of six (6) employees in each case of lay-off. Should further bumping occur, this will be done at the expense of the employee.

In the event of a lay-off where an area office has permanently or temporarily closed and the employee exercises their bumping rights, said employee shall have the first opportunity for the vacancy in their original area office if and when said office is reopened.

Permanent employees with two (2) years or more of seniority at the time of issuance of a notice of lay-off by the Employer will not be laid off. In the event of lay-offs, temporary employees will be laid off prior to any permanent employees.

ARTICLE 8 – STAFF CHANGES AND PROMOTIONS

- 8.01(a) In cases of promotions or transfers, seniority shall prevail provided the employee(s) can fill the normal requirements of the position. Promotion is hereby defined as a move from a lower classification to a higher classification.

Both parties recognize the principle of promotion within the service of the Employer and that job opportunity should increase in proportion to length of service.

When the successful applicant is an internal applicant, the appointment shall be made within thirty (30) days of the closing of the posting. Where the Employer finds that it is not possible to make the appointment within thirty (30) days, they will consult with the Union.

It is understood that, with respect to positions covered by the CSU Collective Agreement, members of this bargaining unit shall be subject to the provisions of Article 11.08 of that agreement.

In re-hiring, employees will be re-employed in the inverse order of their lay-off; that is, the first to be re-employed will be those employees with the greatest seniority provided they are qualified to perform the work available.

The Employer shall notify the employee of recall to work by registered mail to the last known address on file with the Employer. The employee must contact the Employer within five (5) working days of the date of receipt of the letter.

If the employee is re-engaged within a period of six (6) months, that employee continues to accumulate their seniority.

8.04 Trial Period

- (a) The successful applicant shall be placed on trial for a period of two (2) months. Conditional on satisfactory service, such trial promotion or transfer shall become permanent after the period of two (2) months. If the successful applicant has been acting in the position for three or more consecutive months immediately prior to appointment to the position they will have successfully completed their trial period.

The Employer and the Union will mutually develop terms of reference for the functioning of the Committee and training of the members. The Job Reclassification Committee will jointly establish a job analysis procedure for rating positions using the CUPE Gender-Neutral Job Evaluation Plan.

ARTICLE 8 – STAFF CHANGES AND PROMOTIONS (cont'd)

- (b) Should the Job Reclassification Committee determine that there is sufficient change to a position that warrants reclassification, the position will be evaluated using the CUPE Gender-Neutral Job Evaluation Plan. Should the reclassification result in a new salary rate, the rate shall be paid retroactive to the date of the request for reclassification.

8.07 (a) Relieving Pay

When an employee is assigned to relieve in a classification higher than their own, the employee shall receive an additional eight (8) per cent of their own rate but not to exceed the maximum of the higher classification. Written confirmation of approval for relieving pay will be issued to the employee by the Employer prior to commencement of the relief assignment.

(b) Vacation Relief

When employees are required to replace an employee in a higher classification for a period of at least three (3) continuous days, they shall be paid the rate of the higher classification.

- 8.08 (a) Where new classifications are created or current positions reclassified, the Employer shall advise the Union in writing at least sixty (60) days in advance of the creation or reclassification of the position, of the nature of the position(s), the conditions of employment and the proposed wage rate. In the event that the Union disagrees with the proposed conditions of employment or wage rate, the Union will notify the Employer in writing of the nature of this disagreement and the conditions of employment and wage rate for the position shall be subject to negotiations between the parties.

If the parties are unable to negotiate the conditions of employment and wage rate for the position(s) in question within thirty (30) days of the original notice for the Employer, either party may refer the dispute to arbitration.

Such postings shall be in effect for a minimum of three (3) weeks in order that all members will know of the position and be able to make application therefore. Such applications will be acknowledged. No outside advertisement for additional employees will be made until after the closing date of the posting.

If the location of a posted position is subsequently changed before an appointment to the position has been made, the posting will be withdrawn and a revised posting will be issued.

- (ii) Providing sufficient notice of impending vacancy has been received, a posting will be issued up to six (6) months prior to the position becoming vacant, and every effort will be made to post the impending vacancy no later than three (3) months prior to the position becoming vacant. Where an employee gives notice of their intent to retire at the completion of a leave of absence scheduled to end on a date coincident with their intended retirement date, they will be requested to sign a termination agreement which will then allow the Employer to fill the impending vacancy, on a permanent basis, prior to the incumbent's effective date of retirement. The vacancy will only be filled prior to the date of retirement where the termination agreement has been signed by the employee.
- (b) If a COPE Local 491 applicant is appointed to a CSU National Office Component, CEU, CSU, UNIFOR 2013, UNIFOR 2023 or CDU position and if within the six (6) month trial period the applicant desires or does not qualify, they shall be returned to their former position and their salary will be adjusted to the appropriate increment in their former position. Notwithstanding the determination made by the Employer that the need for dictation-taking does not exist, the position will remain classified as secretary.

ARTICLE 8 – STAFF CHANGES AND PROMOTIONS (cont'd)

- (d) When a temporary vacancy occurs in a permanent position within this bargaining unit, and is not filled by a member of this bargaining unit on a "relieving pay" basis, the Employer undertakes that it will always give first consideration to employees who work at the same location, in order of seniority. (By January 31 of each year, employees interested in being considered for such re-assignment during that year will notify the Employer in writing.)
- (e) When the Employer can reasonably expect a newly created temporary position within this bargaining unit to last longer than twelve (12) months, the Employer will temporarily fill the vacancy through the posting procedure. Temporary vacancies which the Employer can reasonably expect to last longer than twelve (12) months due to sick leave or other authorized leave of absence, will also be filled temporarily through the posting procedure.

In the event the said vacancy is temporarily filled by an existing employee through the posting procedure, the Employer is not responsible for said employee's moving costs and is responsible for their accommodation costs only to the following extent:

- (i) For the first thirty (30) days, payment of one hundred percent (100%) of hotel room, single occupancy, plus payment of the in-town meal allowance.

For example, if an employee moves into an apartment at the forty-five (45)-day mark, 50% of one-half of the first month's rent or lodging costs will be reimbursed.

Similarly, notices will be circulated within National Office for National Office staff.

Staff will be required to make their interest in such opportunities known to the appropriate director(s) in writing, and any resulting reassignment will be determined in consultation with the Department of Organizing and Regional Services and/or other national department affected. ARTICLE 8 – STAFF CHANGES AND PROMOTIONS (cont'd)

8.11 In the event that a person applies for and receives a lateral transfer, such person shall be restricted from another lateral transfer move within the same region for a period of two (2) years. - (b) Employees with less than one (1) year's service shall be entitled to take earned vacation, provided they have satisfactorily completed their probationary period. Such requests shall not be unjustly denied by the Employer.

13.02 Vacation Bonus

In addition to pay for the above, there shall be an additional payment of $200.00 for every week of vacation entitlement to be known as vacation bonus. Employees will receive the vacation bonus in the first pay period in June of each year. The vacation bonus payments will be included as a pensionable earning.

13.08 Employees shall be granted their vacation in consecutive weeks when requested.

ARTICLE 13 – VACATIONS (cont'd)

13.09 Vacation Use and Accumulation

Long recognized is the fact that vacation should be taken as earned, so that a person can, through rest and relaxation away from the stress of the work site, re-establish an improved health and mental attitude. In order to clearly establish this principle as being a necessary approach to assure equal and uniform treatment for all employees, the following procedures now must be followed:

- (a) All employees must, each year, schedule and take their vacation entitlement. The timing of vacation to be determined following full consultation with the Employer.
- (b) Vacation entitlement may be carried over only when written permission is requested and allowed by the Employer and should be allowed only under extreme circumstances.
- (c) Where vacation has been accumulated, steps should be taken to reduce such by the taking of a reasonable portion of such, in addition to an employee's annual vacation credits, with the goal being to eliminate the vacation accumulation, (e.g. one (1) week of accumulation to be taken in addition to earned credits). However, employees shall be allowed to retain a "balance" or "float" of their accumulation.

13.10 Preference in Vacations

Every effort will be made, subject to the requirements of the operation, to allow employees to take earned vacation at a time of their choice. Seniority shall be the deciding factor for employees wishing to take earned vacation providing the leave form is submitted before March 1st of each year for vacation leave between the following May 1st and October 31st, and providing the leave form is submitted before September 1st for vacation leave between the following November 1st and April 30th.

In applying seniority as the deciding factor for timely requests, the following principles will be in effect:

- (a) If a conflict arises in relation to requests for the same blocks of time, seniority will be determinative;
- (b) If a conflict arises in relation to requests for single days or less than five (5), or four (4) days, as the case may be, and a block overlapping the same time, seniority will be determinative only to a maximum of five (5) days in total per year after which seniority will not be the determining factor.

- 13.12 No employee shall accumulate vacation credits or vacation bonus beyond a period of twelve (12) months when on long-term disability.
