Bargaining Committee Update

Sisters & Brothers,

The COPE 491 Bargaining Committee met for a full day on Saturday, December 2nd, and have began preparing the proposal package compiled of all the proposals members brought forward. We will also be working together this week tallying the survey results to get a better understanding of what is important to our members.

Our next meeting will be in January to complete the proposal package and have it ready for the next meeting of the Executive.

Thank you for the many surveys and proposals that were sent in! The input of our members is important and very helpful in this bargaining process.

We will send further information as it is available.

In solidarity,

Your Bargaining Committee
